Welcome New Pastor.

The membership of the First Baptist Church last evening welcomed Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, formerly State evangelist of the State Mission Board, to the city and to the pastorate of the Baptist congregation. An excellent programme of music and addresses followed by a reception was carried out. Dr. Fisher was but recently called to the pastorate of the church, and last evening he was accorded a formal welcome at a reception tendered by a very large congregation. There was a large representation of the various denominations of the city. Mr. James R. Mansfield, chairman of the committee on recognition services, presided. The programme was opened by singing "Come Thou Almighty King" by the congregation, following which was invocation by Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of the Trinity Methodist Church. Then the choir sang "Great and Marvelous," after which scripture reading was conducted by Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, of the Methodist Protestant Church. The prayer was offered by Rev. J. P. Stump, of the M. E. Church South following which Mrs. D. M. Steers and Mr. Philip Scantling, of Washington, sang a duet, "My God and Father While I Stray." Rev. Dr. Frank R. Boston, of Warrenton, Va., delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the Baptist Potomac Association, of which this church is a member, at the conclusion of which Miss Lucy Graves sang "I heard the Voice of Jesus Say." This was followed by an address of welcome on behalf of the Ministerial Conference of this city by Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church. "Nearer, My God to Thee" was then sung by Misses Annie and Maggie Vierkorn and Messrs. W. T. Wilkins and M. L. Dinwiddie. An address of welcome on behalf of the ministerial conference of Washington by Rev. Dr. Westoa Bruner, pastor of Fifth Baptist Church of Washington, following which Dr. C. E. Outcalt sang "The Garden of Rest." Senior Deacon Adam Martin of the church then welcomed the pastor on behalf of the Sunday school and church auxiliaries, following which a Sunday school class sang "The Shepherd."

At this point in the programme little Irene McCleary, a Sunday school scholar, presented to Mrs. Dr. Fisher in a few well chosen remarks on behalf of the ladies of the church a large bouquet of flowers which was graciously accepted. The choir then sang as an anthem, "Savior When Night Involves the Skies." The closing address of welcome, on behalf of the church, was delivered by Rev. Willis L. Wayts, a member of the church, who is at present one of the State Evangelists of the State Mission Board. Following Mr. Wayts' address the congregation sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds." The evening's exercises were brought to a close by a response and benediction by the pastor of the church, Dr. Fisher. The music for the occasion was under the direction of Mr. William E. Owens, assisted by Mr. Wm. H. Starnell, and the accompanist was Mrs. F. D. DeDier. The church was beautifully decorated with potted and cut flowers and palms. Each number of the programme was well rendered, and the committee having in charge the recognition services deserve much praise for the successful manner in which the same were carried out.

The Episcopal High School.

The joint final celebration of the Fairfax and Blackford Literary Societies of the Episcopal High School near this city will take place tonight, at 8:30 o'clock, in Liggett Hall. Tomorrow afternoon the commencement exercises of the school will be held.

Died from His Wound.

William Steele, the navy yard employee who was shot during a quarrel with William Pruitt, a painter, at the latter's home near Twining City, adjoining Washington, Sunday afternoon, died at the Washington Asylum Hospital yesterday morning. During the man's short stay at the hospital he suffered intense agony. His hand was almost shot off, and the abdomen torn to pieces by the shot. Pruitt, who was arrested shortly after the shooting, admitted that he shot Steele as he was the trouble resulted from an old quarrel. The latter, so Pruitt said, was one of a party of hunters who some time ago, trespassed upon Pruitt's farm. Pruitt said a row followed, but that it was smoothed over until Steele brought it up again Sunday afternoon in the presence of the party at the old Naylor mansion, where Pruitt lived, and repeatedly taunted him with his failure to do something at the time. Steele was forty-two years old, and is survived by a widow and one child.

For Excursion Parties.

The yacht Mystery, Capt. C. C. Roe, will accommodate small excursion parties from this city during the summer. The engine is of the electric-gas pattern. The Mystery is especially suited for private excursion parties—possessing all necessary accommodations. The yacht is lying at the wharf adjoining the Washington ferry slip.

Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of the School for Girls were held last evening at the residence of the principal, Mrs. Frances B. Ewing, on Prince street, in the presence of an appreciative audience composed of the friends and patrons of the school. The last number of the programme was a recitation for children, written for the occasion, entitled "The Holidays." In their picturesque costumes the little people made a charming appearance. The larger pupils gave, in good style, several scenes from "Romeo and Juliet," that brought them much well merited applause from the audience.

The programme included several selections from Liszt, Beethoven and other composers, which showed the excellent work done by the class in music. In the primary department prizes were awarded for good lessons in all her classes to Miss Esther Mansfield and for good lessons in spelling to Miss Marian Kennedy. For good lessons and elocution a prize was also awarded to Miss Lillian Darley and for improvement in her studies to Miss Matilda Nowland. For excellence in their lessons prizes were awarded to Misses Manie Brown and Leslie Baggett.

In the academic department prizes were received by Miss Ethel Larmand for good work in her German class, and general improvement, and by Miss Fannie Henshaw for high average in her examinations.

For regular attendance and perfect behavior a prize was also received by Miss Esther Mansfield.

The "Sunshine Prize" was awarded to Miss Delia Pevelev. Gold medals were awarded to Miss Marie Porter Henshaw for general improvement, and for her good work and improvement in music to Miss Rose Reed.

The awards were happily made by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, of Grace Church.

Good Samaritans

The State Grand Lodge Independent Order Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria, a colored organization, convened at 10 o'clock this morning in the Alfred Street Baptist Church. The session was called to order by State Grand Chief C. F. Hubbard in private session. At 10:30 Mayor Paff welcomed the delegates on behalf of the city; Rev. Alexander Traut, on behalf of the church, and Rev. E. B. Clarke, on behalf of the local lodges, also made welcoming speeches. There was a street parade this afternoon of the local and visiting lodges, delegates and knights from Lynchburg Richmond and Washington, headed by the National Brass Band of Washington.

The attendance at this session of the grand body is said to be larger than at any previous meeting. The session will continue until Friday, when the election of officers will take place. The State membership of the order at present is 5,700. It is a fraternal organization that has done much in many places in the way of caring for the sick and poor of the colored race. It has a large membership in this city, which embraces some of the best colored people here.

The Revenue Office.

As heretofore stated a petition has been numerous signed by the business men and citizens of Alexandria requesting Collector Summers not to remove the Internal Revenue office from Alexandria. The petition was sent to Mr. Summers by Mr. T. C. Smith, who has received the following reply:

Alexandria, Virginia, June 9, 1905.
Hon. T. C. Smith, Cashier Alexandria National Bank, Alexandria, Va.:
My Dear Sir:—Your letter of June 1, 1905, enclosing a numerous signed petition of the citizens of Alexandria requesting that I continue the location of the Internal Revenue office in Alexandria, received, and, in reply, will say that I am very favorably impressed with this city and with the location of the office, and hope that my relations with the people may be such that I shall have no cause for wanting to remove the office.

With kind regards,
L. P. SUMMERS.

Body Found in River.

The body of an unknown white man, hooked by his clothing to a fishing line which was attached at the other end to an upturned rowboat, was found floating in the Potomac river near the south end of the Long bridge, yesterday afternoon. The man was about forty-two years of age. There were no papers or marks about his clothing which would give the police any clue as to his identity. It is believed the body had not been in the water long when discovered. Inquiries among the boatmen by the police furnished no information about the man. No one could be found who hired the boat to him, or who could identify the boat or the man. It is the belief of the police that the man secured the boat some distance up or down the river, and lodged the boat at a point near the Long bridge to fish, early in the morning. It is supposed he fell asleep while fishing, and, falling overboard, his body was caught by his own hooks.

Suit Over Sand.

George B. Morton and the Potomac Dredging Company, of Baltimore, are plaintiffs in a suit for an injunction filed in the District of Columbia Supreme Court yesterday against the Columbia National Sand Dredging Company, a Virginia company, and Louis E. Smoot, defendants. Morton alleges that he is a citizen of Prince George's county, Maryland, and the owner of Auburn, a farm on the southern side of Piscataway creek, in Prince George's county, and that he is entitled to a bed of sand lying on the southern bank of the creek. The Potomac Dredging Company, of Baltimore, has been taking away the sand from this land, under a grant made by Morton. Recently, it is alleged, the defendant corporation and Louis E. Smoot have taken away sand in violation of the plaintiff's property right and the rights of the Potomac Dredging Company, under the grant.

Maccabees Had an Auspicious Day.

The Maccabees had an auspicious day for their excursion, and it has been literally patronized. The boat will make a trip late in the evening for the benefit of those who cannot leave their employment during the day. The Maccabees' excursions have heretofore been among the most popular given during the summer season, and the committee having today's affair in charge have worked assiduously to make it, like the preceding, pleasant and enjoyable. Those who go down tonight may witness the naval attack on Forts Hunt and Washington.

The City Council meets tonight.

Expected Attack Tonight.

Intelligence from Fort Washington is to the effect that officers on duty at that fortification and at Fort Hunt, just across the Potomac, are expecting an attack by the hostile fleet of Admiral Dickens tonight. Reliable information was received here this morning to the effect that at daybreak today a large part of the fleet was anchored off Blackstone Island, in the lower Potomac, about seventy miles below this city. The Potomac river is well mined and the defenses of Forts Washington and Hunt are in a high state of efficiency. Both officers and men are on the qui vive and declare they will do their utmost to prevent Admiral Dickens demonstrating that he could take a hostile fleet up the Potomac and bombard Washington. A perfect line of communication has been established between the defenses of Washington and the fortifications of Baltimore and Fort Monroe. While no one knows positively what Admiral Dickens' next move will be, it is thought extremely probable that Washington will now be his objective and that he will then devote the remainder of the week in a demonstration against Fort Monroe.

A dispatch from Fort Hunt says that Admiral Dickens' fleet of war ships, bent upon attacking Washington city, was reported this morning in the Potomac river 8 miles below Forts Washington and Hunt, the defenses of the capital city. This information was brought to Col. B. K. Roberts and Major H. L. Harris commanding the two forts by a passenger steamer which came up the river shortly after 6 o'clock. All the vessels of the attacking squadron except the battleship Texas, which was constructively put out of business yesterday at Baltimore; the cruiser Hartford and the gunboat Hornet were said to be in the squadron. It was believed here this morning that a day-long attack would be made upon Washington today. At ten o'clock this morning officers in the watch tower there picked up what appeared to be a small naval vessel several miles below the fort, but it disappeared before its identity could be ascertained. The day is bright and clear, and, in the opinion of artillery officers, it would be almost suicidal for Admiral Dickens to attack until dusk, although they are prepared for any contingency. The twilight hour would be the most favorable from the naval point of view, when it is too dark to aim the guns accurately and still too light to work the search lights.

Personal.

Mr. George L. Summers and his son William arrived here today from Barnsville, Ga. Mr. Summers will attend the Carriage-makers' Convention at Fortress Monroe.

Among the graduates of the University of Virginia this year are Mr. Howard Hume, of Alexandria county, and J. M. Lewis of Manassas, in medicine, and H. T. Davies, of Manassas, bachelor of laws. Mr. W. N. McVeigh, of Richmond, is in this city today on a short visit to friends.

Mrs. Berryman Green last night at her home on Seminary Hill very delightfully entertained the members of the senior class of the Episcopal Theological Seminary.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] After examining several policemen and a number of other witnesses, the grand jury yesterday evening, after the Gazette's report had closed, brought in an indictment against Richard C. Burnett and his wife, Maggie J. Burnett, charging them with selling liquor without a license and a capias was at once issued for their arrest. The grand jury then adjourned until 3 o'clock this evening.

This morning Burnett and his wife appeared in court and gave bond in the sum of $500 each for their appearance on Thursday, for which day their trial was set.

As stated yesterday the grand jury summoned before it the entire police force and a number of the city officers. It was reported on the streets that, from the inquiries made and information secured, the grand jury when it makes its report will show a sad state of affairs existing in the police force which amounts to a total inefficiency of that force brought about by jealousies, factions and incompetency—if nothing worse.

Final Dance.

The Episcopal High School boys last night at McBurney's Hall, in this city, gave their final dance of the season. The hall was prettily decorated and the dance was largely attended. During the evening a delightful supper was furnished by Rammel Bros. The patronesses of the dance were Mesdames J. R. Armstrong, L. M. Blackford, W. H. Bowen, J. T. Burke, W. B. Daingerfield, J. S. Douglas, Dr. L. Greene, M. L. Hood, D. J. Howell, A. B. Hoxby, Dr. H. McGuire, W. Reade, C. H. Smith, W. A. Smoot, jr., C. S. Taylor. Lewis Middleton Ansley, Joseph Hopkinson Bowen, John Lyle Campbell, jr., Churchill Jones Gibson, James Keene Daingerfield, Richard Payne Jones, Richard Potts Johnson, William Berry Marbury, Theodore Tomlinson Kennedy, Beaudric LaFitte Howell, Ewan Donald Cameron, Marion Hyer.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Massoville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Backlin's Arctica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons Druggists.

Warning Trespassers.

The Southern Railway Company has posted notices along the tracks on Wilkes street that read as follows:

"The public is notified that these railroad tracks and right of way are no thoroughfare; must be used by trains and are dangerous for pedestrians who are warned to use the public streets and keep off these private premises."

In view of the fact that the courts have decided that property owners own the streets to the middle thereof, the posting of these notices has caused some comment.

The Light Infantry.

The Alexandria Light Infantry received $550, as percentage of the amount received by the Jones-Adams Carnival Company, which exhibited in this city last week under the auspices of the Light Infantry. The money will be used in the improvement of Armory Hall. The company received 15 per cent. of the receipts from entrances; 25 per cent. from the concessions and 50 per cent. from the programme advertisements.

Collided with Gates.

The horses attached to a vehicle collide with the railroad gates at the intersection of King and Fayette streets at a late hour last night and smashed the safe guards. The vehicle was on its way to the Episcopal Theological Seminary at the time and the gates had been lowered while a train was passing. One of the horses was knocked down, but not seriously injured.

Police Court.

There was but one case before Justice May in the Police Court this morning, that of Sallie and Catherine Timbers, colored (mother and daughter), who had been arrested by Officers Mayhugh and Patterson charged with disorderly conduct. They were fined $2 each. The couple have for many years been patrons of the Police Court.

Baseball League.

The managers of the different baseball clubs met at the Tontine Hotel last night. Six clubs were represented—the "Potomacs," by B. Dobson; the "Virgins," by M. Hicks; the "Invincibles," by R. Lawler; the "Alexandrians," by A. Gray; the "Orientals," by F. Meade, and the "Old Dominions," by H. Davis. The following officers were elected: Secretary, George Patterson; treasurer, Peter Astyke, umpire. The six clubs have turned in a list of players who have been signed by the managers. No player will be allowed to play ball with any other team in the league; he must play with his club. This gives each club a chance to get a strong team together. Three games will be played each week on the old fair grounds on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 5 o'clock. Each club must have a full team on the ground in time for the game or forfeit the same. Each club will be uniformed at once. The first game of the season will be called at 5 o'clock on Monday, June 19th, between the "Orientals" and the "Virgins." Both are strong teams and a good game is looked for.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war knew what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify, thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
